01

The Greenfly logo is the most recognizable asset in the brand identity system and should be used on all marketing materials.

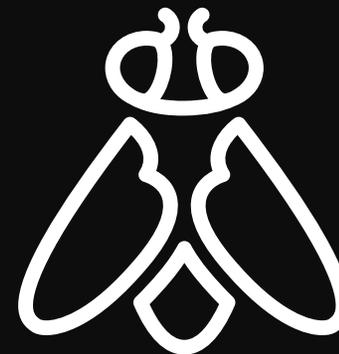

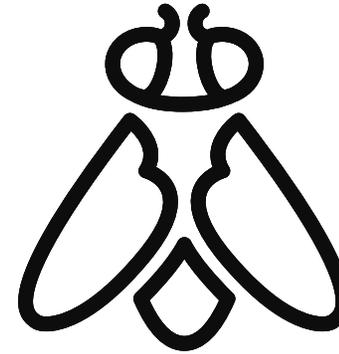

Greenfly Logo

Greenfly Brandmark

The Greenfly brandmark symbolizes byte-sized media assets, moving through the air effortlessly, on their journey from one place to another.

The brandmark can be used on its own, or paired with the wordmark to create horizontal and vertical logo lockups as seen on the following pages.

Horizontal Logo Lockup

The Greenfly brandmark paired with the wordmark to create horizontal logo lockup.

Vertical Logo Lockup

The Greenfly brandmark paired with the wordmark to create a vertical logo lockup.

02

03

A color palette serves as the core of a brand's identity and should be used for any and all brand-focused executions.

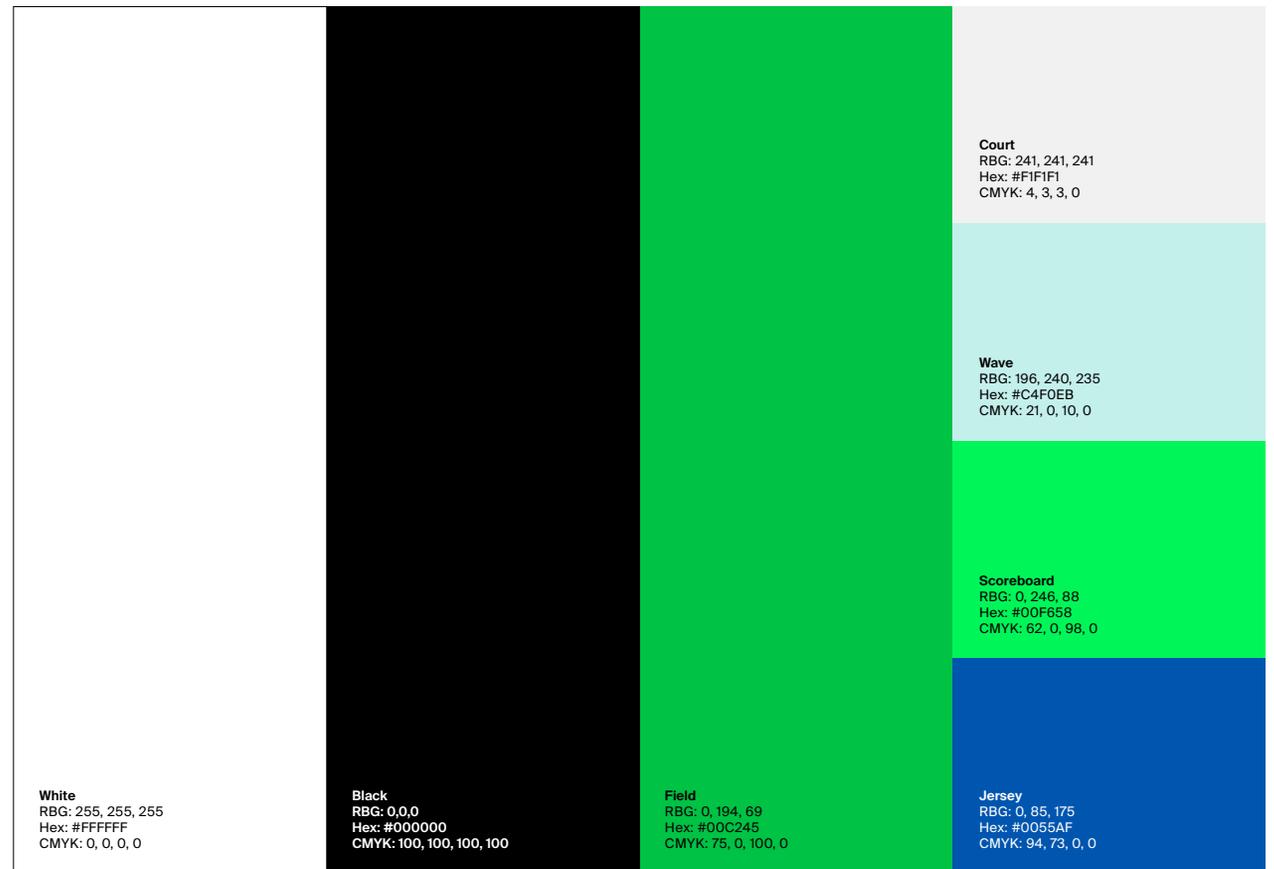

Color Palette

Color Palette

The Greenfly color palette features balanced, harmonious color temperatures. Black and white are used most often, followed by “Field” green. The secondary colors provide visual accent and pop. This proportion makes the use of secondary colors more meaningful – and allows for greater precision with how and when those colors are used.

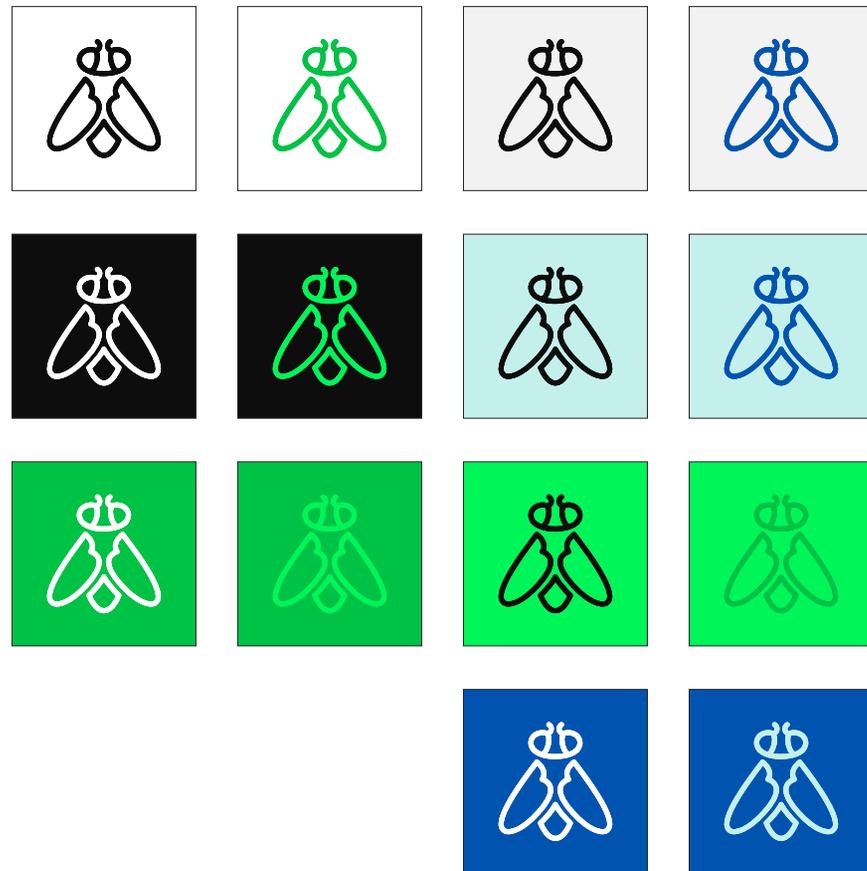

Note: An additional secondary color palette can be specified for UI needs and purposes.

Color Pairings

The entire Greenfly color palette works well together, but these color pairings are used most often and recommended for all brand materials.

04

Photography that represents the Greenfly brand should be organic, authentic and enduring.
